Dear 5.1.2e -

Here is a new clean and compare draft of the APA, further to the call we had Tuesday evening. The compare is comparing against the version we sent to you on 18 September. Some points that may be helpful for your review:

5.1.1c

After you've had the chance to review, we'd much appreciate the opportunity to discuss with you ahead of a potential next Evaluation Committee meeting (hoping we could finalize the agreement). Obviously we would make ourselves available for such a call (if need be in the weekend).

Kind regards, many thanks, for the J&J team,
