Subject: Workshop - In action reviews

Dear (10)(2e)

We are planning to run an online workshop (actually the same workshop on two consecutive days) on the design and delivery of in action reviews in an attempt to encourage colleagues in countries to use this short window of opportunity to review their response to Covid-19 so far and then plan for what lies ahead. The uptake has predictably been slow and so as to make best use of the opportunity we are distributing the invitation more widely to maximise participation. I believe this will be of interest to some members of the SHARP JA as review is one of the key processes in preparedness and something that will become increasingly important as we emerge from this pandemic. Please can you raise this with your colleagues in the SHARP consortium and if they contact me directly I will be happy to send them further details. The course is planned for 6 October 0900-1330 CEST or 7 October 1300-1730 CEST.
