Dear partners

I hope you are all keeping safe and well.

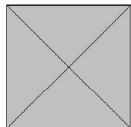

First of all, I want to thank all of you for attending our meeting last Thursday, in particular those of you who are at the frontline of the Covid response at present and who took time out of your busy roles to participate in and contribute to the discussion. Your input and expertise is hugely appreciated and we're looking forward to working closely with you on PANDEM-2 over the coming months and years."

Thank you for your contributions to the messaging document we circulated a couple of weeks ago. As discussed at our call, we have incorporated your comments into a final version (attached) and have also included a one line overall strategic message to summarise simply and succinctly the purpose of the project.

We will be using this document to inform our draft press release which is being worked on this week, ahead of our meeting with the Commission next Tuesday. Therefore, if you have any final comments on the attached, please do let us know by 1pm Wednesday 28 October. I am on leave until Thursday so my colleagues (10)(2e) and (10)(2e) will incorporate any feedback.

Many thanks again,

(10)(2e)
