COVID delays / contract negotiations

- NL RIVM: 6-8 months delay likely, given the current state
- UU: started in lab at 30% capacity again, significant delay likely, also in range of 6-8 months. Bioinformatics development has started for 'basic procedures', started at advanced pipeline for phylogenetic trees delay 6 months

Consortium agreement

- 5.1.2e explains: consortium agreement draft has been sent to all → all to consult their legal departments and announce whether changes are needed

CPE methods in humans, animals and the environment - short update from CPE methods group

- CPE method group met a couple of times. Setup for method comparison is nearly ready. Topics addressed:
 - Suggestion for selective concentrations: Ertapenem 0,5 mg/L, meropenem 0.25 mg/L.
 - Setup for experiments – ready for environment, currently adapted to animals / humans

5.1.2a

5.1.2e

- Experiments themselves delayed until laboratories will re-open

Short update WGS group

- For visualisation of WGS data, Linda looked at pathogen watch from Sanger centre, but this cannot be run on the UU server although it provides all the tools needed and is available directly. Another disadvantage is limited control. As we don't know whether it is available in three years, usage is discouraged.

- Alternative: microreact, can be run on server under UU control, but lacks all tools. Would take some time to install but not that long.
- → UU to organise consultation of the consortium as to which features of WGS are requested in September, such that a decision for a suitable pipeline / visualisation tool can be made
