Hi guys,

Here is the second review. I've forwarded the Minor Changes decision to the journal editor, you should receive the formal letter sometime today.

I will not need to send the revision back to reviewers, so as soon as you have this done, please resubmit and we'll move the paper through acceptance.

Dear 5.1.2e

Many thanks for your timely sending of this review. We are working on the reviewer comments as we speak. We are looking forward to receiving any additional reviews.

As this is a very hot topic we are grateful for your help in trying to share this message with the scientific community soon and we hope that we can pursue this in a timely manner.

Best regards, also on behalf of 5.1.2e, 5.1.2e and 5.1.2e

Hello 5.1.2e and 5.1.2e

Given the delay in the submission system, I am sending you the reviews from the first reviewer, so that you can begin the edits. As soon as the reviews are complete, I'll send you the rest, which I expect will be a 'Minor Revision' decision requiring just some extra computation analyses or text edits.

Here it is below:
