"As EC SecGen has requested feedback already today from EUMS, I send the near-final allocation table. If somebody opts out today or tomorrow, it will obviously change.

The only change from the previous version (sent on Sunday) is that BG wants a lower share. The extra volume is shared pro rata with those that have requested more.

I understand BG is doing this partly in appreciation of the flexibility expressed by other EUMS in sharing doses of the J&J vaccine, for which BG had decided to opt out."
